

WA DELEGATE TRAINING

As a United Workers delegate, you perform the most important role within your union. Your union is committed to providing you with the knowledge and tools required to perform your role as effectively as possible.

United Workers currently offers delegates access to two courses that will provide you with information, assistance, and insight into your union and your role as a delegate within the workplace.

Introductory Delegates Course: 2 days

This course is mandatory for new delegates. It provides an overview of the various functions and activities that a delegate may perform. The course will provide you with a broad range of skills, essential tools and knowledge that will assist you greatly in your new role as a delegate.

Topics include:

- Building power in your workplace
- Recruiting new members
- Understanding union structures
- Representing members and understanding your Agreement/Award.

Advanced Delegates Course: 2 Days

This course is aimed at delegates who have already completed the introductory course and have some experience as a delegate. It expands on the skills and knowledge presented in the Introductory Course and provides delegates with additional skills and knowledge that will broaden their role within the workplace.

Topics include:

- Strategies and tactics for representing members
- Moving members to action
- Problem solving skills
